The Civic Leadership Training is an experiential and comprehensive 2.5 day training designed by and for Asian and Pacific Islanders (API). This intimate class of 15-30 existing and emerging leaders will develop the skills needed to take their civic engagement to the next level.

The CLT will help participants expand their Civic & Political Network and better understand and navigate the civic and political framework (including the electoral process) to build capacity in both political and community organizations

Program Components

Positioning Yourself for Levels of Participation
Networking Skills and Personal Branding
Understanding Your Leadership Style
Individual Positioning: Civic and Political Process Plan
Advocacy Training
Assertive Communication: Sharing Your Vision

Applicants should have

- 1) A strong interest in addressing API community issues and concerns
- 2) Demonstrated leadership experience or active involvement in professional, academic, community or private arenas
- 3) A strong desire to run for elected office, seek appointed positions in public office or increase involvement in nonprofit organizations
